EXPERIENCE

ABOUT ME

Passionate musician, skilled guitar player, and aspiring software tester. With a deep love for both the world of music and the intricacies of software, I've cultivated a unique blend of creativity and analytical thinking that allows me to excel in both realms.

Musician and Guitarist:

Music is the heartbeat of my life. From the moment I picked up a guitar, I knew I had found my calling. Through music I've learned teamwork, leadership, the art of collaboration, stage presence, and the magic of connecting with an audience through my guitar.

Software Testing Enthusiast:

In tandem with my musical journey, I've embarked on a new path as a budding software tester. Just as I dissect melodies and harmonies to understand their essence, I delve into software to unravel its functionalities and intricacies. My attention to detail and methodical approach enable me to identify bugs, inconsistencies, and potential improvements within applications. As a beginner in this field, I'm excited to harness my problem-solving skills and contribute to the
