ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS

Communication, Planning, Multitasking
Working as an exercise demonstrator helped me a lot to gain the skill of organizing a larger group of people in carrying out the tasks provided for that class. I am also always organized with the responsibilities that come up on a daily basis and I manage to master them within the stipulated time

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Reading, Enjoying nature, Climbing mountains
Interests in art, history, and reading a lot of books ,it helps me relax and fix my mood. As a hobby, I like to go to nature, mostly visiting mountains.

COMMUNICATION AND INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

Presentation skills
Verbal and non-verbal communication, ability to handle conflicts, teamwork, empathy, listening and positive attitude. Flexible and positive, capable of listening and good communication and coordination.
Skills for team leader, worked as a demonstrator of exercises in the subject of business intelligence and decision support systems, where I gained a lot of experience in leadership and presentation skills.

PROBLEM-SOLVING SKILLS

Creativity
Is it important to take the time to really understand what the problem is before trying to solve it. Creativity allows me to examine a problem from multiple perspectives, use outof-the-box thinking, and come up with an innovative solution. Also my research skills are essential when solving complex problems, every time a problem arises, I search for it until I solve it.

Optimistic, Flexibility, Awareness

Emotional intelligence is the most important skill in any job because it helps me manage conflict and understand how to effectively manage the emotional dynamics of a team or group. Adapting successfully to changing situations and environments.
